

I HAVE WAY MORE THAN 10 REASONS FOR YOU TO WANT TO DRINK BYEJOE. BUT THIS WILL GET YOU STARTED.

1

baijiu is the most popular spirit on the planet, with over a billion cases consumed each year. And you thought McDonalds® has a lot of fans!

baijiu's origins go back millennia, since the dawn of Eastern civilization. Basically since the human race decided they needed a drink after work.

3

byejoe is distilled from 100% red sorghum – a naturally gluten-free grain that is high in antioxidants. So now you can feel pretty good about feeling good.

byejoe has lower alcohol content, smoother flavor and pleasing aroma. Makes it oh so smoooooth.

5

byejoe is an imported spirit of china, perfected in the USA. The best of both worlds.

6

byejoe utilizes a natural filtration process to reduce unwanted congeners and reveal a smoother, more refined spirit. The cleaner, the better.

7

byejoe is a versatile spirit that mixes well in your favorite fusion cocktails. Go see our mixology page!

8

baijiu closes the deal. It is served at important business functions across Asia. And if you don't have an important meeting, hey, why not have some byejoe anyway?

There's something about byejoe that softens the spirit and makes people forget their differences. Seriously, the world is getting smaller every day and what better way to get together than over a fantastic drink.

10

Let's face it. Other spirits are getting boring.
